Sandhurst Village Calendar 2016

We will definitely be running the same photographic competition for our Sandhurst Village calendar 2016 after the success of last year but after feedback it will definitely be at a cheaper price.

This year's theme: Animals in Sandhurst

It could be pets, wildlife or farm animals – you decide!
Please submit entries at the Summer Fete on Bank Holiday Monday in August.

New Planters at the Village Hall

We have been in contact with the charity Men in Sheds who are hopefully going to build us some planters to brighten up the exterior of the village hall. Once they are in situ, we would be grateful for any topsoil or plants!

Oil Cooperative in Sandhurst?

Would you be interested in joining an oil cooperative in the village? Sandhurst Village Hall and St Lawrence Church are planning on creating some economies of scale by buying their oil together – would you like to join this group? If yes, please contact a committee member.

New Villager Information Pack

In the church survey sent out with the February parish magazine, someone had the very good suggestion of a new villager information pack detailing all the wonderful organisations and activities going on in our village. The PCC and Village Hall Committee will coordinate this so any time someone new moves to the village, please let Jim or Philippa know and we'll drop in a pack.

Table Tennis at the village hall

Any groups hiring the village hall can now have use of the table tennis table stored there. The Sandhurst Table Tennis club have kindly donated a net and some bats and balls for use by the village. Just ask the booking secretary when you book the hall.

Newsletter

April 2015

Please read this newsletter to find out about the events going on in your local village hall.

Events from October 2014 – March 2015

Tuesday 21st October – Tai Chi Open Evening – 7pm

It was a very successful Tai Chi Open Evening in October with lots of villagers trying out this gentle martial art. Numbers have somewhat dwindled over the cold, dark winter months but hopefully the fortnightly sessions on a Tuesday from 7-8.30pm will continue to take place. See posters in village and on website for dates.

Saturday 29th November – Christmas Fayre

What a jolly night was had by all!! Father Christmas came and visited in our beautiful snow grotto, there were lots of lovely things to buy and delicious mulled wine and turkey rolls to eat and drink. Thank you everyone who came and supported!

Saturday 17th January – Great Expectations

As ever, a very slick production by the Rain or Shine Theatre Company, playing to a packed village hall. How do they remember all those lines? We shall definitely be welcoming them back next January for the next production. But look out for the summer show on the village green – The Tempest!

Saturday 24th January – Burns Night

What a fantastic evening organised by Young Farmers. Over 70 of us enjoyed a delicious Scottish meal of Cock a leekie soup, Haggis, neeps and tatties and raspberry cranachan – we were regaled with verse by Graeme and Liz – two true Scots and we danced the night away in traditional Scottish style. Well done to Young Farmers for sorting but especially to the Humphris family for all their amazing hard work.

Velvet Love – Sat 7th March

A brilliant night of music and ale with lots of toe tapping songs by local tribute band Velvet Love and the Memphis One. We managed to drink the barrel dry and dance the night away – great fun!

Future Events:

Tuesday 28th April – AGM - Sandhurst Village Hall – 7.30pm

We have some really exciting ideas for different events we would like to do in our village hall. Your opinion does matter. Please come and join us at the AGM to hear our plans and to let us know your thoughts.

Sunday 28th June – Rain or Shine – The Tempest Sandhurst Village Green

Picnics from 5pm, Show starts 6.30pm

Bring own seating

Tickets: £11 and £6 Tel: 739031

This year we have made sure that this event will NOT compete with the Men's Final at Wimbledon!! Hope the sun shines and that you can all make it!

Monday 31st August – Summer Fete – 1-4pm

The village hall committee are very happy to organise this traditional event but we need about 50 volunteers to help on the day – can you help? Please contact any committee member if you can.

Clubs at Sandhurst Village Hall

Lots of groups use the village hall – Scottish Dancers, Table Tennis, Women's Institute, Young Farmers, the Upholstery Group and the Parish Council and now Tai Chi.

For more information about any of these groups, see the village hall website -
